I. Nature of Involvement

1. I have been engaged as a damages expert on behalf of Bungie, Inc. (“Bungie” or “Claimant”) in this matter versus AimJunkies.com (“AimJunkies”), Phoenix Digital Group LLC (“Phoenix”), Jeffrey Conway, David Schaefer, Jordan Green, and James May (or collectively, “Respondents”) to provide my opinions on economic damages in this matter.

2. I understand that Claimant has alleged that Respondents are liable for the following claimed causes of action: circumvention of technological measures (17 U.S.C. § 1201(a)); trafficking in circumvention technology (17 U.S.C. §§ 1201(a)-(b)); breach of contract; tortious interference; violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act (RCW 1986.020); and unjust enrichment.

3. I offer no opinions on liability, and have necessarily assumed liability for purposes of any damages calculations.

II. Summary of Opinions

4. In the event that Respondents are found liable, based on my analysis, education, training, experience, and review of various evidence as discussed throughout this report and the accompanying schedules, I have calculated Respondents’ sales revenues of alleged infringing Destiny 2 products totaling $41,904. I understand it is Respondents’ burden to prove any deductions of cost from this sales revenue measure in the calculation of Respondents’ profits.

5. I reserve the right to update and or amend my opinions based on additional information I receive subsequent to this disclosure.

V. Basis for Opinions

V.1. Background and Parties<sup>1</sup>

9. Bungie is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 550 106th Avenue NE, Suite 207, Bellevue, Washington, 98004-5088.

10. Bungie is the owner of the popular Destiny franchise including Destiny 2, a successful shared-world first-person action video game. Destiny (2014) and Destiny 2 (2017) and its expansions (2018, 2019, 2020 and ongoing) have been persistent recipients or nominees for rewards worldwide since their release. Destiny, Destiny 2, and its expansions have met with commercial success due in part to their persistent multiplayer features, matchmaking, cooperative Player vs. Environment (PvE) and Player vs. Player (PvP) modes, and in-game rewards. Such rewards include items, seals, and titles that are obtainable by players through skillful gameplay and that are visible to other players, this visibility being an important aspect of the social, always-online nature of the games.

11. The franchise launched in September 2014 with the release of Destiny. In Destiny, players are Guardians of the last safe city on Earth, protecting humanity from aliens and combatting the looming threat of the Darkness, an ongoing threat to humanity. Destiny has a large community of players. Since its release in 2014, Destiny attracted more than 10 million players worldwide. Post-launch, Bungie supported the growth of Destiny and the Destiny community by selling downloadable content (“DLC”) expansions with new content and in-game events that offered challenges, new game modes, and rewards for its players.

12. The most recent game in the Destiny franchise, Destiny 2, was released in September 2017 and builds on the success of the original game. Destiny 2 is now a free-to-play game with paid expansions, continually refreshed DLC, and a player base estimated over 30 million players. As with the original Destiny, Bungie continues to offer new DLC post-launch in Destiny 2 with three major expansions and substantial seasonal releases, including the most recent expansion, Destiny 2: Beyond Light, which allows players to harness new powers and explore a new frontier, Europa.

13. Respondents maintain a website offering video game “mod” and “cheat” products which give the users of those software products advantages in various video games.<sup>2</sup> Respondents developed, advertised, used, and distributed a software cheat that purported to give players an unfair advantage in Destiny 2. Respondents are alleged to be infringing Bungie’s intellectual property rights, circumventing technological measures protecting access to Destiny 2, and breaching and inducing other players to breach Bungie's Limited Software License Agreement ("LSLA").

14. Cheaters are alleged to be harmful to the continued commercial success of Destiny 2. As a free-to-play game, Destiny 2's commercial success is dependent upon continued player engagement, including the purchase of DLC and Destiny 2 expansions. When cheating occurs, or when there is a perception that players are cheating, then non-cheating players may become frustrated that cheaters obtain the same rewards and stop playing and purchasing Claimant's paid products. I have noted examples of Twitter comments supporting Claimant's position such as:<sup>3</sup>

15. I understand Claimant's expert, Mr. Steven Guris, will opine that cheats such as those offered by Respondents are harmful to companies like Bungie.

16. Respondents are alleged to have created, advertised, sold, and distributed cheat software, including for Destiny 2. Respondents advertised and sold their cheats through their website, AimJunkies.com. Respondents' sold their cheat, "Destiny 2 Cheat," for $34.95/month in most cases. An example of Respondents' offer to sell the cheat-at-issue from AimJunkies' website is shown below:

17. As of December 4, 2020, Phoenix Digital was listed as the seller of the Destiny 2 cheat software purchased through AimJunkies.

18. Destiny 2 players who purchase and deploy Respondents' cheat may be given an unfair advantage over non-cheating Destiny 2 players. For example, Respondents' "Destiny 2 Aimbot" claims to automatically aim at enemy players without requiring input from the cheat user; the "Destiny 2 No Recoil" purports to eliminate recoil from weapons, allowing the user to stay locked on to his/her enemies; and the "ESP" feature purportedly allows the cheat user to see players and items through walls, which non-cheating players cannot do.

V.2 Operative Matter

19. On June 15, 2021, Bungie filed a complaint in Federal Court in Seattle alleging copyright infringement (17 U.S.C. § 501 et seq., trademark infringement (15 U.S.C. § 1114), false designation of origin (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)), in addition to the causes of action noted above. Bungie filed the Demand for Arbitration in this matter on February 10, 2022, referring all claims except the intellectual property infringement claims to arbitration.

20. Respondents allegedly copied and distributed Bungie's copyrighted works in order to reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, decrypt, and modify those works without Bungie's authorization.<sup>4</sup>

V.3 Bungie's Claimed Intellectual Property

21. I understand that Bungie has asserted the following intellectual property in relation to this matter:

Copyrights

Title	Type	Registration No.	Date of 1st Publication	Expiration Date of Registration
Destiny 2	Code (Literary Work)	TX 8-933-655	September 9, 2017	September 9, 2112
Destiny 2: Beyond Light	Code (Literary Work)	TX 8-933-658	November 10, 2020	November 10, 2115
Destiny 2	Audiovisual	PA 2-282-670	September 9, 2017	September 9, 2112
Destiny 2: Beyond Light	Audiovisual	PA 2-280-030	November 10, 2020	November 10, 2115

Trademarks

Bungie owns multiple trademarks associated with the Destiny franchise including but not limited to DESTINY, DESTINY (& design), DESTINY 2, DESTINY 2: LIGHTFALL,

Expert Report of Drew E. Voth

DESTINY 2: BEYOND LIGHT, and DESTINY 2: THE WITCH QUEEN (the “DESTINY Marks”).

22. Bungie began using the DESTINY and DESTINY (& design) marks in commerce at least as early as February 1, 2013. Since their first use, Bungie has continually used those marks in connection with video game software.

23. Bungie also owns United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) Registration No. 4,321,315 for the DESTINY (& design) mark:

24. Bungie also has pending applications for DESTINY 2: LIGHTFALL (Serial No. 88/955,399), DESTINY 2: BEYOND LIGHT (Serial No. 88/955,392), and DESTINY 2: THE WITCH QUEEN (Serial No. 88/955,395).

LSLA

25. By downloading, installing, and/or playing Destiny 2, players accept the terms of Bungie’s LSLA. If a player does not agree to the LSLA or wishes to reject the terms of the LSLA, then the player may not install, copy, or use Destiny 2.

26. Bungie claims it employs a variety of technological protection measures that, in the ordinary course of their operation, require the application of information, or a process or a treatment, with the authority of Bungie, to gain access to Destiny 2 and prevent, restrict, or otherwise limit a player’s ability to access, copy, or modify Destiny 2. At a high level, the Destiny 2 game client attempts to safeguard critical player data and prevent unauthorized reading and writing of this data, as well as unauthorized execution of game logic. Bungie claims additional measures are taken to prevent otherwise normal game functionality (e.g. firing a weapon) from being manipulated, misused, or over-used to gain an unfair advantage.

V.4 Remedy Calculations

27. I have calculated compensatory damages in this matter in the form of Respondents' profits. In calculating Respondents' profits, I understand it is Claimant's burden to prove Respondents' sales, and that it is Respondents' burden to prove any deductible costs. Based on my analysis of Respondents' financial data, I have calculated that Respondents' sales relating to Destiny 2 products have been $41,904 as follows:

Respondents' Sales
	Amount	Number of Transactions	Detail
Data per PayPal	$ 21,683	706	Schedule 1
Data per Stripe	$ 20,221	655	Schedule 2
Total	$ 41,904	1,361

28. Respondents produced PayPal payment system data for various products in the file titled PayPal0000034.xlsx, and Stripe payment system data for various products in the file titled PDG0101.xlsx.<sup>5</sup> Based on my analysis of the data in these files, I have summarized the payment data related only to the Destiny 2 products as shown in Schedules 1 and 2, excluding sales data for other products not specifically identified as being related to Destiny 2. Where transaction type information in the data suggested

<sup>5</sup> I note that Respondents' supplemental response to Interrogatory 7 refers to this data as being responsive to Claimant's request to "identify all bank accounts, financial accounts, payment processor accounts, or any other source(s) of funds or accounts owned by Phoenix Digital that are or have been used to process and/or store funds related the sale of the Cheat Software."

potential refunds or credits, in order to be conservative I have deducted those amounts from claimed sales, even though such amounts were not represented in the data as negative numbers which would normally be expected. Such refunds or credits were found in the "amount_refunded" column of data within the Stripe data, and within the "transaction type" column of data within the PayPal data, for transaction types "Payment Refund" or "Payment Reversal."

29. Sales from the PayPal data span the time period from December 2019 through May 2020. The time period covered by the Stripe data is not apparent in the data provided, and I have assumed the Destiny 2 sales data contained therein is within the damages period.

30. As each sale I have included in my calculations were contained within Respondents' sales data explicitly showing Destiny 2 as the product sold, and I have reviewed AimJunkies.com's website screenshots such as the one shown previously which explicitly associated Destiny 2 with cheat at issue, I have reasonably assumed that Claimants will establish any legally required nexus between Respondents' sales and Claimant's asserted claims.

VI. Conclusion

31. Based on my work as discussed in this report, in the event that Respondents are found liable, based on my analysis, education, training, experience, and review of various evidence as discussed throughout this report and the accompanying schedules, Respondents' sales revenues of alleged infringing Destiny 2 products total $41,904.

32. I understand discovery is ongoing and I reserve the right to update my analyses and opinions should any new information be received. For example, I understand that Respondents' website lists cryptocurrency, specifically Bitcoin, as an avenue for purchasing cheat software. My review did not include an accounting of cryptocurrency purchases, and I reserve the right to modify my opinion if those data become available.

I declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States of America that, to the best of my knowledge, the foregoing is true and correct.
